Black hair, kept fairly short [1-3"] runs along the top of his head until it hits the side where it is shaved down to an incredibly low length. A close examination shows a small shape branded into the skin under the hair. He has a beard: just as black as the top of his head, but bushy, kept just too short to be braided. You get the sense that his real pride is his moustache, also bushy- waxed to the sides when there's time but more often than not, dangling down and covering the corners of his mouth. He's short. He's a dwarf. He's stout. He's a dwarf. He looks like he wouldn't push over too easy, and it would take a hell of a breeze to push him back. Along his arms are a series of scars from burns: neat and square from the side of a hot tool. When his armor isn't on a simple green shirt covers his torso, with a simple -but heavy- tan kilt underneath, going to just about his knees. His eyes are so light they feel grey, and they look contemplative. By default his lips are flat and unrevealing, but if he knows you or trusts you they'll tilt up enough for a smile.
